A 55-year-old man presented with a five-day history of blurring of vision, pain and redness in the right eye. He had no significant past ocular or medical history, and gave no history of trauma. Ophthalmologic examination is shown above (Panel).

What is the diagnosis?

Answer: refer to page 235